

CALIFORNIA STATE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

Biography

Mark C. Hill

Mark Hill is the Program Budget Manager of the unit responsible for the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, and Financial, Demographic and Economic Research of the California Department of Finance. Previously he served as Assistant Program Budget Manager in the Education Systems Unit, the Business, Transportation and Housing Unit, and the Corrections and General Government Unit. Prior to those assignments Mark was an analyst with a variety of assignments including Health, Investable Resources and State and Consumer Services. Mark's career in Finance has spanned more than 30 years.

Mr. Hill received a Bachelor of Arts degree from University of the Pacific in Stockton, and a Masters of Public Administration degree from the University of Southern California Sacramento campus. While at UOP, Mark served for six months as an intern in Washington, D.C. for Congressman John McFall

Mr. Hill was married to the late Shirley Hill, a long-time state manager and analyst, from whom he learned much.

Mr. Hill is married to Cheryl Black, who is a fiscal consultant for the State Senate.